

AGENDA

Day 1

Session 1

9h00 -10h30

Short Welcome by Dean- Mike Kidd

1.	Donrich Thaldar	UKZN	How effectively can generative AI draft data transfer agreements for health research?
2.	Christoph Rademacher	Waseda University	VIRTUAL -- Highlighting the Importance of the Decisionmaker's Background in Adjudicating (Cross-Over) IP Disputes

Tea

10h30 – 11h00

Session 2

11h00 – 13h00

3.	Aliki Edgcumbe	UKZN	Artificial intelligence as a legal guidance tool
4.	Gerald Adams	University of Penn	All the ancient lights we cannot see. An assessment of the inconsistency between American public and private law considerations of property rights when it involves commercial airwaves.
5.	Ayaka Mori	Waseda University	Design Right Facing at Metaverse Technology
6.	Gideon Parchomovsky and Lital Helman	University of Pennsylvania and Hebrew University of Jerusalem	VIRTUAL - Artificial Inventorship

Lunch

13h00-14h00

Session 3

14h00 – 16h00

7.	Devarasi Bellengere	UKZN	AI Voice Cloning and Misuse: An argument in favour of the recognition of the Right of Publicity in South Africa
8.	Christopher S. Yoo	University of Penn	Beyond Algorithmic Disclosure for AI
9.	Richard Gold	McGill University	VIRTUAL - From Patents to Regulatory Exclusivities in Drug Development: A Comparative Transaction Cost Analysis

Day 2

Session 4

9h00 -10h00

10.	Prof. Ryan Whalen	University of Hong Kong	Putting the 'progress' back in the progress clause: Copyright law reform for the 21st century
11.	Roberto Caso	University of Trento	Intellectual Property and Open Science in the European Union Research and Innovation Policy. What Role for the Public Sector and Universities?
12.	Jean De Meyere and Alain Strowel	UCLouvain (Belgium)	How to shape a global policy to fight disinformation during election periods: some lessons from the proposals of NGOs and the new EU framework.

Tea

10h00 – 10h30

Session 5

10h30 – 11h30

13.	Paolo Guarda	University of Trento	Interoperability for sharing health data within the European framework: lessons from Star Wars
14.	Nomfundo Mthembu	UKZN	Beyond reproductive rights: Advocating for access to assisted reproductive technologies (ARTs) for socially infertile individuals using the right to benefit from scientific progress

--	--	--	--

Farewell and thanks – Prof Thaldar

End of Meeting

Lunch at hotel

Leave for tour of Howard College – Law school

Then back to hotel.