

LawTech Consortium - UCLouvain - Brussels 9 & 10 May 2025

UCLouvain Saint-Louis Bruxelles, 43 Bld du Jardin botanique, 1000 Brussels – Room P.02. The most convenient access to this room is via Rue du Marais 119/A, 1000 Brussels. Once in the courtyard, enter the building marked “Préfecture”, the room will be on your right. The closest metro station is "Rogier".

Each presentation consists of a 15-minutes talk followed by a 10-minutes discussion.

Friday 9 May

Welcoming of the participants (9.00-9.20)

Opening words by Alain Strowel (9.20-9.30)

Session 1 (9.30 -10.45) Moderation : Alain Strowel

Paolo Guarda	Associate Professor – University of Trento	AI, data protection and innovation: balancing rights and data sharing policies in the context of the European Data Strategy
Yaniv Benhamou	Professor & attorney-at-law – University of Geneva	Open Source AI: Propagation of Open Source Licenses in the Age of AI
Scott Veitch	Paul KC Chung Professor in Jurisprudence - University of Hong Kong	Algorithmic A-Legality: Shorting the Future Through AI

Coffee break

Session 2 (11.00 – 12.15) Moderation: Alain Strowel

Shira Sheinenzon	PhD student - Hebrew University of Jerusalem	I, AI - user safety and LLMs
Clément Maertens	PhD student - UCLouvain	Developing a Comprehensive Framework for the Legal Analysis of AI-driven Disinformation in EU Information Law
Tugce Kucukali	PhD candidate – McGill University	Reimagining Free Culture and Cultural Democracy in the Post-Artificial Era

Lunch break

Session 3 (14.00 – 15.15) Moderation: Enguerrand Marique

Alexandre Piron	Teaching assistant & PhD student - UCLouvain	Smart Commerce, Vulnerable Consumers? The Influence of AI on E-Consumer Behavior and the Challenges for EU Consumer Law
-----------------	---	---

Gerald Adams	Georg Sharswood Fellow – University of Pennsylvania	Curation as Competition, Curation as Vice
Masabumi Suzuki	Professor – Wasada University	Sustainability, Technology and Law: the Case of Hydrogen Technologies

Coffee break

Session 4 (15.30 – 16.45) Moderation: Enguerrand Marique

Adrian Kuenzler	Associate Professor – Hong Kong University	Attuning Big Tech Regulation in Light of Data- Driven Markets
Donrich Thalдар	Professor - UKZN	The End of Consent and the Last Research Participant: Rethinking Privacy and Public Interest in Health Data Sharing
Roberto Caso	Professor of Comparative Private Law – University of Trento	In the name of security (against science): AI Act and emotion recognition

Saturday 10 May

Session 1 (9.30 -10.45) Moderation : Alain Strowel

Sato Naito	Assistant Professor – Waseda University	Complementary Perspectives: How Japan's AI Governance Enhance the Global Regulatory Discourse
Gadi Perl	Research Executive – Hebrew University of Jerusalem	Beyond the Human in the Loop: Reimagining AI Decision-Making Through an Adapted Due Process Framework
Christopher Yoo	Imasogie Professor in Law & Technology – University of Pennsylvania	Role of Economic Effects in Proportionality Review: Insights from Data Protection Law

Session 2 (10.45-12) Moderation: Enguerrand Marique

Alain Strowel	Full Professor - UCLouvain	The risks of AI slop and AI model collapse, and why we need a dual right system to adequately feed the next Gen AI models and to remunerate creators
Pierre- Emmanuel Moyse	Full Professor – McGill University	From Interoperability to Data Dependency